SIGNALS AND WHAT TO DO WITH THEM

OBSERVABLE	WHAT TO DO WITH IT
Her priority: software's "better margins" [8]	Prepared leaders protect GM's software growth.
Talyx preps executives [14]; GM's autonomy code is AI-written [2]	GM leaders enter each meeting prepared.
Results Oct 20 [3]; EV adjustments [15]	Ask for time after Oct 20.

BEHAVIORAL PROFILE

WHAT THE RECORD SHOWS	YOUR MOVE
Pace and control: "we believe EVs are the end game" [16]	Match their pace; propose once, then ask.
Appetite for detail: cites 700,000 vehicles [17]	Bring the numbers and the sources; allow silence after a question.
Appetite for risk: exited robotaxis [18]	Pair the upside with the safeguard in the same sentence.
How they keep score: China share rank [19]	One peer reference is useful; more is noise.

WHO DECIDES

- Decision maker: Not determined; Anderson reports to Reuss [6].
- The gate: Not determined
- Relationship holder: Not determined

STRONGEST CASE AGAINST

- Against: GM took $2.3 billion of EV adjustments and cut its net income outlook to $8.4-9.8 billion [15]; leaders may be watching cost. Reverses if: she names a speed target for executive work.

MEETING ANGLE

A. This meeting

- Frame: AI adoption reaching executive meetings; not a pitch.
- Lands: her own AI figure, 90% of autonomy code [2].
- Repels: asking for dates on autonomy [5].
- What to bring: a one-page sample built on public GM facts [14].
- The ask: 30 minutes after Oct 20 with her or the AI owner [7] · Fallback: the owner alone.
- Stop if: she says executive AI tools are off GM's agenda this year.

B. Meeting two

- Meeting two: 30 minutes after results [3] with the owner of AI adoption [7].
- Meeting three: a trial with one GM executive team.

C. After the meeting

- Capture: who she names as AI adoption owner.

MEETING SCRIPT

Facts select the moves; read the room, never the record · Mary Barra, General Motors · Prepared Oct 14, 2026

1. OPEN

- Hook: "Nearly 90% of your autonomy team's code is written by AI [2]. I'd like two minutes on what that could mean for how your leaders prepare."
- Credibility: I'm with Talyx; we build AI meeting-prep and knowledge tools for executive teams [14].
- Insight: every fact in our briefs links to its public source, so safety-minded teams can check it [9].
- Rule: hold the 90% figure as the thread; return to it after each answer.

2. QUESTION ORDER

- Story: You said AI adoption "far exceeded" your expectations [7]; which teams have moved slowest?
- Process: Software has better margins than hardware [8]; which software line should grow fastest?
- Gate: GM opens meetings with a safety message [9]; what must a new tool prove to pass that bar?
- History: Eyes-off highway driving is planned for 2028 [10]; which executive decisions need the most preparation before then?
- Commitment: Sterling Anderson reports to Mark Reuss [6]; who else weighs in when GM adopts new AI tools?

3. OBJECTIONS: NAME IT, THEN ANSWER

- "We build our own AI tools.": Your teams do, at nearly 90% of autonomy code [2]. I'm asking for 30 minutes on executive meetings, not a platform.
- "Results come out Oct 20; no time.": Understood [3]. I'd ask for 30 minutes after the call, with whoever owns AI adoption.
- "Data and safety come first.": Agreed; GM opens meetings with a safety message [9]. Every fact in a brief links to a public source.

4. CLOSE

- Restate: ask what would make a second 30 minutes an easy yes, then say it back in her words.
- Real deadline: results on Oct 20 [3]; ask for a slot after that date.
- The ask: 30 minutes after Oct 20 with her or the leader who owns AI adoption [7] · Fallback: a 30-minute call with that leader.
- Follow-up: send a one-page sample built on public GM facts by Oct 21 [14].

5. READ THE ROOM (WATCH, DO NOT ASSUME)

- Fast, wants the answer: lead with the outcome in one sentence [16].
- Asks for terms and data: bring the figures and their sources [17].
- Talks about people: name the engineers behind the AI-written autonomy code [2].
- Big picture, ideas: link to 2028 eyes-off driving as the start of full autonomy [10].

6. IF IT STALLS

- The move: ask which teams got AI to write 90% of autonomy code, and what they needed [2].
- The move: ask how GM's robotaxi exit changed how it chooses new bets [18].

7. GUARDRAILS

- Rule: promise no results or dates for GM; claim nothing about its non-public plans.
- Never say: "Does that make sense?" · "Is this helpful?" · "No pressure" · "You'd know better than me" · "Just checking in"

Next step: send the one-page sample on Oct 21, the day after results [3].
